* COMPLETE CREDIT INFORMATION IS REQUIRED FOR AUTOMATIC DELIVERY****

Any service required in maintaining the account will be billed to the applicant unless otherwise provided herein.

PERIOD OF AGREEMENT: The term of this agreement will begin on the date of acceptance by the company, and shall continue until terminated by either party with notice. Fuel pricing programs (CAP/PAL) are separate agreements and are placed on automatic delivery status for the term of the contract and beyond.

DELIVERIES: Unless otherwise specified, deliveries will be made in accordance with the Company's automatic Weather-Watching Service. Use of this service does not nullify the customer's basic responsibility to see that an adequate fuel inventory is on hand. It is the responsibility of customer to maintain clear approaches to the fill location.

The Company shall not be responsible for failure to make deliveries due to conditions beyond its control including but not limited to strikes, fire, accidents or government regulations.

Statement of Fair Credit Billing Rights

"If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us at the address shown on your bill as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but by doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number
- The dollar amount of the suspected error
- Describe the error and explain why you believe there is an error. If more information is needed, describe the item in question.

You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating; however, you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question."

Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act

"The Federal Equal Opportunity Act and comparable provisions of Massachusetts Law prohibits creditors from discriminating based on race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, marital status or the fact that the applicant is a recipient of public assistance or has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Protection Act. The Federal Agency which administers compliance with this law is the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580. The State Agency is the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination, One Ashburton Place, Boston, MA 02108."

"If credit is extended to the Undersigned, the Undersigned agrees to pay for the balance due according to the terms, stated or implied, and at East Coast Petroleum Corporation's discretion, a late charge of ONE AND ONE-HALF PERCENT (1.5%) per month (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF EIGHTEEN PERCENT (18%)) on all unpaid balances. To avoid additional FINANCE CHARGES, the balance is to be paid prior to the 30th day of the current month. Finance charges are calculated on all balances 30 days and over after deducting all credits and payments."

"In the event of default, the Undersigned agrees to pay all reasonable attorney's fees and costs, and expenses for collection of amounts owed. The Undersigned consents to the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts courts for all actions instituted hereunder and, agree that Massachusetts law shall govern."

"The above information is for the purpose of obtaining credit and is warranted to be true. I authorize East Coast Petroleum Corporation to verify the information listed pertaining to my credit and financial responsibility as well as my employment history using credit reports and/or other channels/sources they deem necessary."
